Philadelphia Insurance Companies Proudly Sponsors Nonprofit Innovation Awards

Harrisburg, PA, February 22, 2010, Philadelphia Insurance Companies (PHLY) is proud to be a supporting sponsor of the 11th Annual Nonprofit Innovation Awards, which recognizes and honors 501(c)(3) organizations in the central Pennsylvania region for demonstrating innovation in their daily operations. The award-winning organizations will be announced at a breakfast on February 24, 2010 at the Valencia Ballroom in York, PA.

Nonprofit organizations from a number of central Pennsylvania counties will be evaluated based on their innovation in the categories of Brand Identity/Unique Marketing Campaign, Collaboration, Management Operations and Programs and Nonprofit Leadership Excellence. The Nonprofit Innovation Awards were created in 2000 by the Central Penn Business Journal in partnership with the Foundation for Enhancing Communities, the Lancaster County Community Foundation and the York County Community Foundation.

As a leader in the nonprofit insurance industry, Philadelphia Insurance Companies celebrates charitable organizations which that demonstrate forward-thinking and inventive business strategies. "Philadelphia Insurance Companies is honored to support the Nonprofit Innovation Awards and we commend all honorees for their progressive business practices," commented Sean Sweeney, Executive Vice President & CMO.
