Achieving Environmental Success Together

Bala Cynwyd, PA, April 18, 2009, Philadelphia Insurance Companies announced that its GREENPHLY Council will sponsor the Pennsylvania Horticultural Society's 10th Anniversary of 'Spring Into Your Park'. The Pennsylvania Horticultural Society's urban revitalization program, Philadelphia Green, has dedicated Saturday, April 18th to cleaning and greening 68 neighborhood parks in Philadelphia. Special guest speakers include: Michael DiBerardinis, Parks and Recreation Commissioner; Joan Reilly, Philadelphia Green Senior Director and co-author of The PHS City Parks Handbook; State Rep. Kathy Manderino and Councilman Curtis Jones.

75 volunteers representing Philadelphia Insurance Companies will participate in the Philadelphia Green program and plan to bag trash, plant annuals, perennials and trees at Gorgas Park in Roxborough from 10 A.M. to 1:00 P.M.

Commenting on the Philadelphia Insurance Companies commitment to the environment, President & CEO James J. Maguire, Jr., said: "As an industry leader, we have a strong responsibility to 'green living' within the community and workplace. We are proud to sponsor and participate in the 10th Anniversary of 'Spring Into Your Park.' This event truly highlights the importance of parks in community life."
