

Philadelphia Insurance Companies
Promotes Travel Plaza Product

Bala Cynwyd, PA, April 30, 2009, Philadelphia Insurance Companies (“PHLY”) is proud to promote its Travel Plaza product. Providing one of the broadest coverage forms in the market, PHLY’s Travel Plaza product offers comprehensive coverage for General Liability, Property, Automobile and Crime.

PHLY’s Travel Plaza product is intended to cover travel centers designed specifically to meet the needs of highway travelers and truck drivers. Travel centers cater to both 4-wheel traffic and truckers, and are usually found along major highways outside of towns and cities. Most are independently owned and operated, but some may be affiliated with national franchise chains. Other acceptable risks include restaurants, auto supply and convenience stores, communication centers, and shower facilities.

Adam Weisman, Underwriting Product Manager, remarked, “We are pleased to announce our enhanced insurance coverage designed for full-service travel plazas. Our program offers broad coverage tailored to the distinct needs of this client segment.”

Philadelphia Insurance Companies, a member of the Tokio Marine Group, designs, markets, and underwrites commercial property/casualty and professional liability insurance products incorporating value added coverages and services for select industries. In operation since 1962, the Company, whose commercial lines insurance subsidiaries are rated A+ (Superior) by A.M. Best Company, AA- for counterparty credit and financial strength by Standard & Poor’s, and A1 for insurance financial strength by Moody’s Investors Services, is nationally recognized as a member of Ward’s Top 50. The organization has 48 offices strategically located across the United States to provide superior service.
