

CLAIM SCENARIOS

FESTIVALS

$25,000

During a street festival the claimant stepped in a hole and turned his knee. A claim was filed against the local community who operated the festival claiming lack of a safe premises and failure to warn of a known hazard.

$10,000

Claimant was assaulted at a festival held by the insured. The claimant alleges lack of proper security by the insured.

$12,500

The claimant was attending a festival operated by the insured. She injured her ankle, knee, and back when struck by a golf cart driven by an employee of the insured.

$5,000

During a street festival held by the insured a table fell onto the claimant's foot resulting in a broken toe.

$5,500

During a festival held by the insured the vice president's 3 year old granddaughter got into a golf cart, started the golf cart and ran into the claimant. Both the granddaughter and claimant sustained injuries and were taken to the hospital.

$7,500

Equipment used in the operation of the festival was stolen from a storage shed.

$15,000

Volunteer worker at a seafood festival sustained second degree burns when he fainted and fell, hitting a pot of boiling oil.

For more information about our products and services please visit us at PHLY.com

800.873.4552

Philadelphia Insurance Companies is the marketing name for the insurance company subsidiaries of the Philadelphia Consolidated Holding Corp., a Member of the Tokio Marine Group. Your insurance policy, and not the information contained in this document, forms the contract between you and your insurance company. If there is a discrepancy or conflict between the information contained herein and your policy, your policy takes precedence. All coverages are not available in all states due to state insurance regulations. Certain coverage(s) may be provided by a surplus lines insurer. Surplus lines insurers do not generally participate in state guaranty funds and insureds are therefore not protected by such funds. | © 2007-2012 Philadelphia Insurance Companies, All Rights Reserved.

PHLY.com

